Printed copies of the draft bye-laws will also be available for sale at annas two per copy.

B. M. ABU BAKER,
688 Commissioner.

Bye-laws framed by the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation under Clauses (a) to (d) of sub-section (32) of Section 367 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949, (Act No. LXIX of 1949), for the levy of Octroi on animals or goods or both, brought within the Octroi limits of the Corporation of the City of Bangalore, for consumption or use therein.

1. DEFINITIONS.

In these bye-laws, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "Central Octroi Office" means the octroi offices situated in the City Area and in the Civil Station Area for collection of octroi as provided in these bye-laws and includes the Bonded Warehouses attached to them.

(b) "City of Bangalore" or "City" means the area comprised in the Bangalore City and the Civil Station of Bangalore as defined in Clause (9) of Section 3 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation.

(d) "Dealer" means a person carrying on the business of buying and selling dutiable articles whether wholesale or retail and whether or not in conjunction with any other business and includes an agent or attender or any employee engaged by him.

(e) "Octroi Ookad" means the octroi post situated on the main roads or cross roads described in Schedule I at which all vehicles and animals are stopped for purpose of inspection of goods liable for octroi and includes octroi posts in Cantonment and City Railway Station Parcel Offices and Goods Sheds and the Bangalore East Railway Station.

(f) "Retail Dealer" means any person who is engaged in the business of buying dutiable articles locally and selling them for purposes other than resale.

(g) "Wholesale Dealer" means any person who is engaged in the business of importing dutiable goods from outside the Corporation limits and selling them to others for purpose of re-sale and includes any person who transacts business on his behalf.

2. Octroi limits for the purpose of collecting octroi shall be the Corporation limits.

3. No articles liable to octroi shall be brought within the Corporation limits except by one of the high roads and the cross roads or streets described in Schedule I, hereto annexed or by the Railway.

4. All persons brining into or receiving from beyond the octroi limits of the City any such articles or any conveyance or package containing such articles liable to octroi shall stop such articles, conveyance or packages at the octroi ookads on the high roads, cross roads and railway stations described in Schedule I, in order to enable the octroi officer in-charge to inspect the same.

5. (a) The octroi posts at which the articles, conveyances or packages shall be liable to inspection shall be the ookads on the high roads as well as the cross roads described in Schedule I, the Bonded Warehouses and the City, Cantonment and Bangalore East Railway Stations including all their gates and the Central Octroi Offices. Every person bringing dutiable goods within the City shall report the fact, at the first of such posts on the route by which they are brought. All officers of the Octroi Department not below the rank of a mutsaddi are authorised to inspect the contents of any conveyance or package under Section 131 of the City of Bangalore Municipal Corporation Act, 1949.

(b) All persons driving vehicles shall stop them at the octroi ookads when entering the Corporation limits whenever required to do so by the octroi staff for the purpose of examining and searching for articles liable to octroi.

(c) Breach of clause (b) of this bye-law shall render the offender liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding rupees fifty: provided that if the offender is a person other than the owner of such vehicle and is not traceable the owner of such vehicle shall be punished as if he himself has committed the said offence.

6. A table showing the octroi leviable as per Schedule II shall be open to the inspection of any person at the Corporation Office and copies thereof shall be supplied without any charge to any person requiring the same. Such table shall also be affixed in a conspicuous place at every ookad or office at which octroi is levied.

7. When the goods have been examined at the octroi ookad, a pass in duplicate for such of the goods as are liable to octroi duty shall be furnished to the importer by the octroi ookad mutsaddi. On receiving such pass, the importer shall forthwith bring the taxable goods to the Octroi Office accompanied by a peon: provided that, if the duty to which goods are liable does not exceed eight annas, the octroi ookad mutsaddi may, unless the importer declares that he intends to re-export the goods, receive such duty and give to the importer a permit showing the nature and quantity of the goods and the duty received: provided also that in the case of goods imported by railway, the Inspector or other officer in-charge of the octroi ookad
